VOLUME 1 APRIL 2025 ISSUE 77

Easter Sunday is a day of joy and celebration, but the resurrection of Jesus is not just a one day event. It is the foundation of our faith and a way of life. As followers of Christ, we are called to live as Easter people, embracing the hope, victory, and transformation that the resurrection brings every day.

The early church understood this deeply. After Jesus' resurrection, His disciples were forever changed. No longer fearful and uncertain, they became bold witnesses of His power and love. The resurrection was not just a historical event for them, it was the reality that shaped everything they did. It gave them courage in the face of persecution and strength to spread the gospel to the ends of the earth. They knew that because Jesus had conquered death, nothing could truly defeat them.

Paul reminds us of this in his letter to the Corinthians: "So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!" (2 Corinthians 5:17, NRSV). This verse speaks to the transformation that comes from knowing the risen Christ. Because He lives, we are given new life, new purpose, and a new identity as God's redeemed people. We are not bound by our past mistakes or fears, but instead, we are set free to walk in the fullness of God's grace and truth.

Living as Easter people means carrying the joy and hope of Christ's victory into our daily lives. It means choosing faith over fear, hope over despair, and love over division. It means seeing the world through the lens of resurrection and knowing that no matter how dark things may seem, light has overcome the darkness. When we live in this truth, we experience a peace that surpasses understanding and a confidence that nothing. Not even death can separate us from God's love. It also calls us to extend grace to others, just as we have received it, fostering reconciliation and unity in a world so often divided.

One of the simplest yet most powerful ways we can live out the resurrection is by sharing it with others. Just as the women at the tomb ran to tell the disciples that Jesus was alive, we are called to share the good news. Whether through acts of kindness, words of encouragement, or simply the way we love one another, we reflect the risen Christ to the world. In a world that often feels weighed down by hardship and uncertainty, our role as Easter people is to be beacons of light, pointing others toward the everlasting hope we have in Jesus. This can happen in our families, our workplaces, our communities, and even in the small, everyday interactions we have with strangers. The power of the resurrection is not just something we talk about it is something we live.

This Easter season, let us not simply celebrate an empty tomb, but live in the power of the resurrection. Let us be people of joy, people of hope, and people of love. May we, like the first disciples, carry the light of Christ into every corner of our lives, proclaiming with confidence: Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! And may that truth not just be something we profess on Easter morning but something we live out every single day. By doing so, we become living testimonies of God's unending love and the transformative power of the resurrection, ensuring that the message of Easter continues to shine brightly in the world.

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Jeremy

"WELCA NEWS

Welca will not be selling Geraniums.
 The place where the Geraniums were purchased closed.

ATTENTION !

The quilts on the back of the pews were finished this year during do days (and a few at home). Thank you to everyone that helped. The quilts are once again being offered to purchase for a free will offering. Remember they will make good gifts for graduation, weddings, Christmas, or just for yourself. If you would like to purchase a quilt, write a check to St. John Welca and in the memo write how many you are purchasing. This helps us keep track of how many we sold. The money we make is used to buy supplies for next year's quilts. You can give your check to Becky Fuelling or leave it in her mailbox. Please look to make sure the quilt you are buying does not already have a name on it. Thank you.

As you work on your spring cleaning, keep us in mind for your extra sheets, pillow cases, curtains, or new fabric. We are able to use most anything. If you have doubts, bring it to us and we will sort through it. We use it for tops, middles, and backs. Even though sheets may not be perfect, we can still cut squares from them. We appreciate any and all donations that we receive. Thanks

LUANA NEWS

St. John Council Minutes March 9, 2025

Present were: Pastor Jeremy, Diane Kraus, Stan Dull, Jerry Schroeder, Loren Lenth, Aaron Smith, Tim Donlon, Luke Steege and Vicky Baade. Heath Landt was absent. Meeting was called to order by President, Jerry Schroeder.

Pastor led devotions.

Vicky read the minutes of the February 9 meeting. Tim moved to accept the minutes, Loren seconded, approved.

The treasurer's report was reviewed. Luke moved to accept the report, Stan seconded, approved.

Church insurance – Jeremy reported that the committee has been working on gathering information and will hopefully have a recommendation soon. Tim Donlon and Keith Hanson are also on the committee.

Aaron gave a report on the Building Committee activities. The committee did a thorough walk-through of the church and parsonage yesterday.

Parsonage - Stanley Thomas completed the basement wall repairs and did a very nice job. There was still some leakage because the sidewalk has settled, sloping toward the house. The committee will work on that when the weather warms up. The front steps need leveling and new smoke detectors are needed. The basement windows still need replacing.

Church – The committee found spots where the plaster of the interior walls needs attention, especially the east wall of the balcony. They want to hide the cable for video equipment. On the exterior, the window wells need to be dug out and new rock installed. Aaron had asked Brenen Steele for a bid on painting all of the white trim on the outside of the church. Brenen's plan would be to wash the trim, treat it with an anti-mildew product, use primer and then enamel paint for $5850. He would also stain the small deck on the north side for about $250 more. He could start in April. Diane moved to hire Brenen for the job, Luke seconded. Approved. A big thank you to the Building Committee for all they have been doing.

Jerry adjourned the meeting. Members prayed the Lord's Prayer.

Next meeting will be April 13 at 7:30am.

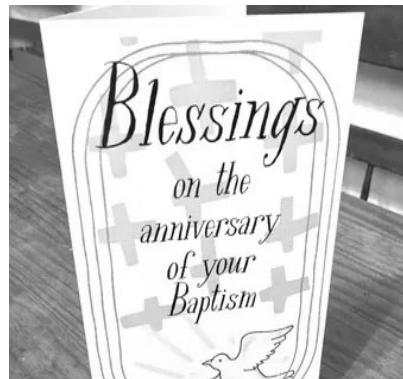

Respectfully submitted by Vicky Baade, Council Secretary

Easter's date varies each year because it's calculated based on the lunar cycle and the spring equinox, specifically as the first Sunday after the first full moon following the spring equinox, which can fall on different dates each year.

The date of Easter is determined by finding the first full moon after the spring equinox, and then the following Sunday is declared Easter Sunday.

Because of the lunar cycle and the variable date of the spring equinox, Easter can fall anywhere between March 22 and April 25.

Easter is April 20, 2025.

NEWSLETTER – APRIL 2025

Our year is not starting out as great as we had hoped. Our furnace quit working and therefore we had to replace and upgraded to a more efficient unit with central air. It is something that was unforeseen and needed to be taken care of immediately. We remained open with no heat for 11 days. Because Shepherd of the Hills operates from donations, we really could use your support to help with this big expense. All donations sent should be noted on the memo line "Furnace repair". We are very blessed to have communities and churches support Shepherd of the Hills, specially NOW!
